

TOASTMASTERS OFFICERS' ROLES

Meeting participants play an important role in making the Club educational and enjoyable. But another group of people have even more responsibility for meeting quality and the long-term success of the Club. This group is called the Club Executive Committee. The titles and standards of each Executive Committee member are as follows.

President

The President serves as the Club's chief executive officer, responsible for general supervision and operation of the Club.

Standards outside of the Club meeting are to: Ensure that Club officers meet Club officer and Club meeting standards; oversee plan to achieve Distinguished Club Program goals and ensure that the Club is a Distinguished Club; encourage communication and leadership development through promoting CTM, ATM, CL, and AL awards; ensure the Club has an ongoing membership building program; attend and vote the Club's proxy at District council meetings or ensures that a Club member attends and votes; attend Regional Conferences and the International Convention and vote the Club's proxy or send the proxy to the District Governor; oversee administrative operation of the Club in compliance with the Club Constitution and Bylaws; maintain a relationship with the District and with Toastmasters International; schedule and chair monthly Executive Committee meetings; arrange for a replacement if unable to attend a Club or Executive Committee meeting; search for leaders, ensure all Club offices are filled for the succeeding term, and ensure that timely elections are conducted; prepare successor for office; attend District-sponsored club officer training.
